Mr. Montoya has served as the acting director at Manchester VA Medical Center since July of 2017 after an organizational crisis brought him to the facility. His leadership immediately improved care for New Hampshire Veterans, and his response advanced unprecedented community collaboration, innovation and opportunity.

Before arriving at Manchester, Mr. Montoya served as Medical Center Director at the White River Junction VA Medical Center. His proven leadership was applied at the Manchester VA with a focus on partnerships. “My work has been to bring people together to realize all that is possible for Veterans,” said Montoya. “I am excited to continue this work, deepen relationships, and enhance collaboration across medical centers in Vermont and New Hampshire. In the last eight months, and with the dedicated staff at Manchester VA, we have made unprecedented change together, and I am humbled and honored to be appointed to be a permanent part of the team.”

Matthew Mulcahy, acting director, White River Junction VAMC served as associate director to Mr. Montoya in Vermont, “The White River Junction VA Medical Center is grateful for the exceptional work Mr. Montoya accomplished during his time here,” said Mulcahy. “It has been my pleasure to have had a chance to serve on Al’s leadership team, and I look forward to continuing to strengthening our collaboration with Manchester VA and offering the best care for our Veterans.”

At the Manchester VA, Montoya will oversee a comprehensive healthcare system classified as a Complexity Level 3 facility that provides care to approximately 33,000 New Hampshire Veterans, with an operating budget of $141+ million.

Montoya shared his appreciation with the staff at White River Junction, “Words cannot express how appreciative I am of each and every one of you and what you do for our Veterans. I am grateful for the time I was able to spend in White River Junction, and I am grateful to continue my mission of caring for our nations heroes.”

Manchester VA Medical Center is part of the VA New England Healthcare System which includes eight medical centers, located in the six New England States: Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts. Governor Chris Sununu Signs Executive Order to Re-Organize and Streamline State Veterans Services

Concord, NH, February 15, 2018 - Today Governor Chris Sununu signed an executive order to initiate creation of one coordinated State operation for the provision of veterans services. The Governor was joined at the signing immediately after his State of the State address by guests David Meaney of the American Legion, Ray Goulet of the NH Chapter of Vietnam Veterans of America, Paul Lloyd of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), and Ernest Sulloway of Disabled American Veterans.

“We must recognize a fundamental truth, that once a person signs those enlistment papers, they are a soldier for life,” said Governor Sununu. “This executive order will bring coordinated veterans services under one roof in New Hampshire, which will bring resources together to streamline services for one simple goal: better outcomes for our veterans.”

The changes contemplated by the executive order will be a team effort involving Adjutant General Dave Mikolaities, the Veterans Council, the Office of Veterans Services (“OVS”), the Department of Health Human Services’ Bureau of Community Based Military Programs, and other Executive Branch officials and personnel.

The executive order directs the Adjutant General to develop and execute memorandums of understanding with both the Office of Veterans Services and the Bureau of Community Based Military Programs to provide for the streamlining and coordination of all veterans services provided by the State. The memorandums of understanding will be executed within 60 days and fully implemented within 120 days.

Adjutant General Dave Mikolaities and OVS Director Bill Gaudreau also weighed in on the new executive order.

“New Hampshire’s veterans and their families will benefit immensely from having a single operation and point of contact for the services and benefits they have earned,” said Adjutant General Mikolaities. “I am grateful to Governor Sununu for his leadership and efforts on this issue, and the Adjutant General’s Department looks forward to working with the Office of Veterans Services and the Bureau of Community Based Military Programs to turn the Governor’s vision into a reality.”

“The Office of Veterans Services is excited to join the Adjutant General’s Department and the Bureau of Community Based Military Programs in this exciting and important initiative,” said OVS Director Bill Gaudreau. “The services provided by OVS will be greatly enhanced by this new coordinated effort.”

Help with Cadets Studying PTSD and Veteran Issues

My name is Ryan Cirbo and I’m in the ROTC program here at Thomas More. I’m in the classroom doing my prerequisite studies before I begin my active training in the fall. We are currently in the midst of learning about veteran services before, during, and after service. Most recently, we’ve been discussing and learning about social reintegration, and the common struggles and hardships veterans face when making the transition to ordinary civilian life.

This unit has covered a range of topics like Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, depression, anxiety, and other common hardships. For the unit, our instructor has given us a project to spread information to “strong facilitators of information” and we stumbled across your memorial site in our research. Our group’s topic is on PTSD and addiction and we’ve found a couple helpful resources online and wanted to share them with you, in hopes that you would share them further with our community. Here are a couple resources we thought would be helpful to share:

- PTSD in Veterans HelpGuide \(https://www.helpguide.org/articles/ptsd-trauma/ptsd-in-military-veterans.htm\)
- Veterans in Recovery (<https://www.therecoveryvillage.com/resources/veterans/>)

Both resources contain some valuable information that could potentially help a veteran down the line. Our hope is that you can evaluate these resources and provide honest feedback to my group – we would be very grateful. Thank you so much for your time and we appreciate everything you do in supporting our cause.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Ryan Cirbo (ryanbcirbo@gmail.com), Christian Walters, Devin McGinnis, Carl Morelli

Gold Star Family Memorial Monument - Newsletter

The Gold Star Family Memorial Project Committee is starting a newsletter that can be shared with the public. We are hoping to help foster the human connection we have with this monument and why it is important. We are looking to have you share stories of your loved one. The story is not necessarily or only about their military service (although that is okay too) but share who they were in life and the many memories and reason they will always live on in your hearts. You can tell how you persevere and honor them going forward.

Please consider sharing your heroes story - that would be wonderful!

For family friends too - they often know great stories and have a unique perspective on how your loved one impacted them.

We are hoping this newsletter will help the public see your loved one's face and give that very human connection. We plan to post the newsletter on-line and encourage people to share. We will continue to send information about the Monument until all funds have been raised and it is completed.

Please email your stories to me at your earliest convenience (phil413.susan@gmail.com).

SNHU "Full Ride" Scholarship

Bob Stewart here from Southern New Hampshire University's military team. We will be hosting a "SNHU Night" at the TD Garden on March 20th when the Celtics play the Oklahoma City Thunder. We have been approved by the Celtics to award a full scholarship to a deserving service member, veteran, or spouse of a service member in the local area during a timeout or at halftime during the game.

I would like to afford you the opportunity to nominate an outstanding individual with the following circumstances:

- Not currently a Southern New Hampshire University student

- Would like to complete their education but are suffering a financial hardship (i.e. no GI Bill or benefits available).
- Would be willing to tell their story in writing.
- Must be present at the game (may bring guest) on the 20th as our guest.

The deadline for this is short fused and I need to know as soon as possible if you have any candidates and need their story in writing by COB next Friday the 9th.

This is an excellent opportunity to help a deserving individual who otherwise would not be able continue their education. I would like to thank you in advance for supporting our military community!! Please contact me with any questions. I look forward to hearing from you.

VA Launches Welcome Kit to Guide Veterans to the Benefits and Services They've Earned

VA's onboarding process can be overwhelming at times. Veterans who have visited a VA outreach booth, VA eligibility office, or have gone through a Transition Assistance Program know that VA has no shortage of technical handouts, benefits books and materials. But, even with all of these resources, Veterans are telling us "Where do I start?"

Now, VA can point all Veterans to the VA Welcome Kit. Click on the link to check it out:

Heteronyms -- Enjoy!

Homographs are words of like spelling but with more than one meaning. A homograph that is also pronounced differently is a heteronym.

You think English is easy?? I think a retired English teacher was bored...THIS IS GREAT!

Read all the way to the end.....This took a lot of work to put together!

- 1) The bandage was wound around the wound.
- 2) The farm was used to produce produce.
- 3) The dump was so full that it had to refuse more refuse.
- 4) We must polish the Polish furniture.
- 5) He could lead if he would get the lead out.
- 6) The soldier decided to desert his dessert in the desert.
- 7) Since there is no time like the present, he thought it was time to present the present.
- 8) A bass was painted on the head of the bass drum.
- 9) When shot at, the dove dove into the bushes.
- 10) I did not object to the object.
- 11) The insurance was invalid for the invalid.
- 12) There was a row among the oarsmen about how to row.
- 13) They were too close to the door to close it.
- 14) The buck does funny things when the does are present.
- 15) A seamstress and a sewer fell down into a sewer line.
- 16) To help with planting, the farmer taught his sow to sow.
- 17) The wind was too strong to wind the sail.
- 18) Upon seeing the tear in the painting, I shed a tear.
- 19) I had to subject the subject to a series of tests.
- 20) How can I intimate this to my most intimate friend?

Let's face it - English is a crazy language. There is no egg in eggplant, nor ham in hamburger; neither apple nor pine in pineapple.

English muffins weren't invented in England or French fries in France.

Sweetmeats are candies while sweetbreads, which aren't sweet, are meat.

We take English for granted. But if we explore its paradoxes, we find that quicksand can work slowly, boxing rings are square, and a guinea pig is neither from Guinea nor is it a pig.

And why is it that writers write but fingers don't fing, grocers don't groce and hammers don't ham?

If the plural of tooth is teeth, why isn't the plural of booth, beeth?

One goose, 2 geese. So one moose, 2 meese? One index, 2 indices?

Doesn't it seem crazy that you can make amends but not one amend?

If you have a bunch of odds and ends and get rid of all but one of them, what do you call it?

If teachers taught, why didn't preachers praught?

If a vegetarian eats vegetables, what does a humanitarian eat?

Sometimes I think all the English speakers should be committed to an asylum for the verbally insane. In what language do people recite at a play and play at a recital?

Ship by truck and send cargo by ship?

Have noses that run and feet that smell?

How can a slim chance and a fat chance be the same, while a wise man and a wise guy are opposites?

You have to marvel at the unique lunacy of a language in which your house can burn up as it burns down, in which you fill in a form by filling it out and in which, an alarm goes off by going on.

English was invented by people, not computers, and it reflects the creativity of the human race, which, of course, is not a race at all. That is why, when the stars are out, they are visible, but when the lights are out, they are invisible.

P. S. - Why doesn't 'Buick' rhyme with 'quick'?

You lovers of the English language might enjoy this.

There is a two-letter word that perhaps has more meanings than any other two-letter word, and that is 'UP.'

It's easy to understand UP, meaning toward the sky or at the top of the list, but when we awaken in the morning, why do we wake UP?

At a meeting, why does a topic come UP?

Why do we speak UP and why are the officers UP for election and why is it UP to the secretary to write UP a report?

We call UP our friends.

And we use it to brighten UP a room, polish UP the silver; we warm UP the leftovers and clean UP the kitchen.

We lock UP the house and some guys fix UP the old car.

At other times the little word has real special meaning.

People stir UP trouble, line UP for tickets, work UP an appetite, and think UP excuses.

To be dressed is one thing, but to be dressed UP is special.

A drain must be opened UP because it is stopped UP.

We open UP a store in the morning but we close it UP at night.

We seem to be pretty mixed UP about UP!

To be knowledgeable about the proper uses of UP, look the word UP in the dictionary.

In a desk-sized dictionary, it takes UP almost 1/4th of the page and can add UP to about thirty definitions.

If you are UP to it, you might try building UP a list of the many ways UP is used.

It will take UP a lot of your time, but if you don't give UP, you may wind UP with a hundred or more.

When it threatens to rain, we say it is clouding UP.

When the sun comes out we say it is clearing UP

When it rains, it wets the earth and often messes things UP.

When it doesn't rain for a while, things dry UP.

One could go on and on, but I'll wrap it UP, for now my time is UP, so.....

it is time to shut UP!

Now it's UP to you what you do with this email.
