St. Patrick's Day Dinner

The American Legion Post 8 Family celebrated St. Patrick's Day on March 17th inviting friends and honored guests to enjoy an evening of entertainment and food.

The evening started off with a cocktail hour and appetizers followed by the formal ceremonies as practiced at all Legion based events.

Commander Dan Murphy spoke to the crowd and explained how proud he was of the Post and its accomplishments over the past year. He also spoke of the need to get more members involved and continue the tremendous progress that had been made during 2016

Following the Commander's State of The Post speech he recognized the efforts of the Post 8 SAL "Breakfast Club". Jim Wood accepted a letter of appreciation from the Legion for the all of the organization and commitment the group has put fourth making this a reality.

The "Breakfast Club" opens up on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month serving variety of options to the public. The group has been averaging 50 customers per weekend and it continues to grow.

Next up the Hibernians took to the dance floor entertaining with a mix of patriotic crowd pleasers and a beautiful rendition of Amazing Grace that brought some tears to eyes in attendance.

The evening concluded with a Corn Beef and Cabbage dinner which won high praise and left people asking for take home plates by the end of the night. Put a place holder on your calendar for 2017 and plan to join us for an even better time!

SAL Donates to Community and Honors Their Own

The Post 8 Sal continued to make their presence in the Dover community felt when Commander Jim Wood presented two $1000 donations during the St Patrick's Day dinner.

The Dover Children's Home and the Dover Children's Center both received the donations and thanked Commander Woods and his group for all of their efforts and dedication to giving back to the community.

In addition Commander Wood also presented five members of the SAL with Letters of Appreciation for their efforts during breakfast events held throughout the winter.

The five members were Kim Wood, Jen Hassen, Scott Hassen, John Hessenfort and Wally Roy. Each member was thanked commitment to the project and for volunteering their time.

The spirit of volunteering is at the heart of the Legion principles and these individuals have all displayed that spirit and continue to do so each breakfast weekend.

The next breakfast weekend will be April 17th. On that day as a special way of showing their appreciation for those who have served all Veterans will be able to eat for free. Please pass the word and come down!!!!!!
