

AMERICAN LEGION
OFFICER JEREMY CHARRON
LAW ENFORCEMENT POST #122

P.O. BOX 6352
MANCHESTER, NH 03108

www.alpost122.org

Once Again State Headquarters of the American Legion has tasked the Officer Jeremy Charron Law Enforcement Post 122 with soliciting nominations and selecting the Law Enforcement Officer of the Year for 2020. Once the New Hampshire Officer of the Year is selected, Post 122 along with State Headquarters compiles a package and submits it to National Headquarters for consideration for the National Law Enforcement Officer of the Year. The State of New Hampshire has been quite successful at the National level with several National runners up. In the past, Manchester Officer Chris Biron was chosen as the National Officer of the Year for the American Legion. Stratham Police Officer Charles Law was chosen as the National Officer of the Year for the Forty and Eight organization which is an associate organization of the American Legion. This past year Franklin, NH Police Chief David Goldstein was selected Officer of the Year for 2019.

Nominations can be made by Law Enforcement Administrators, supervisors, civic organizations and citizens. Simply write a concise letter explaining why you are nominating an Officer and mail it to:
